

Below is a summary of PCBU's obligations regarding the management of First Aid emergencies in the workplace.

The First Aid in the Workplace Compliance Code 2008 (VIC) provides practical advice about the selection, provision, maintenance and use of First Aid equipment, facilities and services at a workplace (including construction work and rural industry work).

FIRST AID TRAINED PERSONNEL

The First Aid Code of Practice VIC s91 states "Having regard to the outcomes of the risk assessment, the employer needs to ensure that an appropriate number of suitably trained first aid officers are provided for the welfare of employees in the workplace."

Life International Training offer corporate and public First Aid and Perform Rescue from a Live LV Panel courses, successful participants will receive a Nationally Recognised Statement of Attainment.
